GROUP TRAVEL

EXPERTISE

überland Reisen Berlin is a package tour operator and inbound travel specialist based in Berlin. We work exclusively in the B2B sector for group travel in Germany and a few of our European neighbours. Our experienced, international team is dedicated to organising trips for your customers of all ages. Our expertise and versatility have won the respect of clients around the world.

FULL SERVICE

We organise group trips tailored to your needs – we're quick and cost-effective. We offer everything from hostels for school and student groups, to good mid-range hotels for your tour parties, companies and clubs, through to first class hotels for VIP guests. We're your first port of call to arrange entire city tours, class trips that combine education and fun, and exciting, tailor-made extras.

ORIGINAL GOAL

überland Reisen was founded in Berlin in 1990, right after the Wall came down, inspired and motivated by the sense of new beginnings and change in Germany and Europe at that time. Berlin was at the heart of events and was attracting visitors from around the world. We seized the moment and set out to organise tours that would spotlight this new range of destinations in East and West.

OUR PROMISE

We believe that travel particularly broadens the mind and boosts intercultural understanding, and so we're thrilled to do our bit to help. Your individual travel requirements are just as important to us as your customers' total satisfaction.

AVAILABILITY

We have extensive quotas at very good rates, so we can ensure that our whole range is available in Berlin and many other cities, even at peak times. We keep you regularly updated about special offers and new ideas.
